Some excerpts from the film *"In prison my whole life"

William Francome was born on December 9th 1981 in London. At almost exactly the same time over 3000 miles away in Philadelphia, a police officer was shot and killed. A prominent journalist, Mumia Abu Jamal, was also shot at the scene and was subsequently arrested, tried, convicted and sentenced to death, and has been on death row ever since. This movie is an attempt to find out more about Jamal and his story.
